

Dante Lewis Bio

Dante Lewis is a popular jazz saxophonist across the Carolinas and the South East. He plays a variety of music ranging from R&B to jazz standards. His musical talent and energy will make you fall in love with the saxophone and keep coming back for more. As a resident of Columbia, South Carolina, Dante is a local celebrity and plays throughout the region often, frequenting cities such as Charlotte, NC and Greenville, SC.

Dante creates a comfortable and inviting atmosphere in whatever setting he's in. He has the ability to play in any variation from solo saxophone, all the way up to a full five piece band including the drums, bass, keyboard and guitar. His performances include a combination of popular jazz covers and original music. Dante is a great fit for any event, including holiday parties, weddings, private parties, corporate gatherings, jazz festivals, and more!