

J'Michael Peeples Bio

J'Michael Peeples is arguably the best smooth jazz/R&B guitarist in the Carolinas. He has been playing music for most of his life and after experimenting with several instruments, the guitar was the only instrument he felt could approach the music like a pianist and express melodies as a vocalist. Currently residing in Charlotte, North Carolina, J'Michael has played all throughout the Carolina's and has proven that he can wow any crowd with his unique and diverse musical talents.

The mantra he lives by is “Live to create and keep the music honest”. J'Michael Peeples, a popular jazz guitarist from Columbia, South Carolina, who plays anything from smooth jazz to funk/R&B. With the ability to play any configuration from solo guitar, jazz duo/trio to a full 10 piece party band, J'Michael is a perfect fit for any event including private parties, corporate events, weddings, ceremonies, cocktail hours, receptions, holiday parties, and more.