

About LS Brown

LS Brown has been performing, writing, and arranging music for over 25 years. A genuine seasoned performer, he has collaborated with various musicians all over the South Eastern region of the U.S. Brown's music speaks for itself and has an authentic quality that is a rare find in today's market. From rock to folk to alternative to pop to country and back around again, his renditions of your favorites will keep you entertained and add a great ambiance to your next event.