

The Holiday Singers Bio

Few things elicit the winter holiday spirit as much as carolers straight out of a Norman Rockwell painting. Four authentically Victorian-costumed a cappella singers bring your favorite traditional and holiday tunes to life, and take your guests back in time to their best holiday memories.

This unique group has over 20 years of history providing worry-free, quality holiday entertainment. Without the need for equipment, it's flexible and can perform anywhere – indoor, outdoor, loud, soft, one-on-one, or for a crowd. The number of corporate and shopping center environments who hire The Holiday Singers again and again attests to our professionalism. The constant flow of private clients and country clubs demonstrates our personal touch.

Visit the website for our long list of local performances and a peek at the extensive qualifications of the carolers themselves. Let The Holiday Singers help create the special ambiance your guests will remember.
