

The Lowhills Bio

The Lowhills are an Americana/Roots Family band out of Johns Island, SC, with a sound that can be described as a smooth mix of americana, classic country, bluegrass, swing and R&B. They cover a wide range of styles from well-known artists including Elvis, Hank Williams, Al Green, Roberta Flack, Frank Sinatra, Carole King, Bonnie Raitt, Van Morrison and Fleetwood Mac.

The band members include Husband wife duo Matt and Lauren Bevins Cahill and lifelong friend and musical partner Joe Marlow. They can be an organic acoustic trio (guitar, mandolin and upright bass) or plug in with a drummer for a more electric funky sound.

Lauren Bevins fronts the band with smooth Norah Jones/Diana Krall-esque vocals and plays Mandolin and guitar. Raised just outside of Charleston she made a name for herself around town playing with various local bands and writing and performing as a solo singer/songwriter. She feels she has really found her home with The Lowhills.

Joe Marlow is the primary songwriter for the group, a multi-instrumentalist he is most proficient and impressive on guitar. Joe and Matt Cahill (upright bass, drums, harmonica and vocals) grew up together in Nashville as kids playing music together in school talent shows and gigs around town and as young adults in a rock band called The Tips opening up for big name bands like Foreigner.
