

Brendan Kirby Bio

Brendan Kirby plays a variety of music to keep everyone singing and dancing, including classic rock, oldies, country, pop, and of course crowd favorites of yesterday and today.

Brendan is known for being a "one-man-band", singing and playing guitar/keyboard while using his loop pedal to lay the groundwork, and building harmonies while increasingly adding more to the song to give the effect of a full band.

Kirby has a wide range of influences, including John Mayer, Dave Matthews, Ed Sheeran, Billy Joel, Elton John, James Taylor, Lee Brice, and Many more.

When he is not performing, Brendan is concentrating on writing new music. He recently recorded a new single "Dangerous Game", which will be available for download on iTunes, Spotify, and other platforms in March 2023.

Born and raised on the lake in a small southern town not far from Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, Brendan, has been performing since 2013, playing at festivals, weddings and wedding receptions, private parties, restaurants, and bars throughout SC, NC, GA and Nashville, TN.

Brendan Kirby started performing at various open mics in and around his hometown at only fourteen and quickly built a following in the South Carolina area.

He has performed on stage at "Tootsie's World Famous Orchid Lounge," "Honkey Tonk Central," "Hard Rock Café," "The Valentine," and "The Second Fiddle" on Broadway in Nashville, Tennessee. While in Nashville, Brendan also appeared on the Television Show, "Nashville Spotlight," a show for talented young entertainers focusing on "stars of tomorrow" from over 37 states and 4 Canadian provinces.

Brendan has co-written songs with a few artists and has also collaborated with Korot and has been featured on his single, "I Fall," which was released on June 6, 2019.

He recently recorded his EP, 10 Mile Road while continuing to perform live throughout South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia on a regular basis.

Brendan is a member of The International Singer-Songwriters Association and has a great social media following, with some YouTube videos having over 30,000 total views since 2018.
