

CAROLINA ROYAL STRINGS

Carolina Royal Strings is an award-winning string ensemble located in Charlotte, North Carolina. Comprised of a team of highly skilled, classically trained professional musicians with a wealth of performance experience both at home and abroad.

We specialize in providing live music for weddings, corporate and social events, gala balls, gallery openings, banquets, holiday parties, cocktail parties and private dinners.

Our available ensembles include, but are not limited to; string quartet, string trio, string duo, solo violin or solo cello. Piano, harp, flute or trumpet can be added to the ensembles listed above.

Larger ensembles are available upon request.

Our mission is to provide outstanding personal service, deliver flawless performance, and to create an atmosphere of elegance, joy and sophistication for our clients' events. In addition to our high level of musicianship, we emphasize exceptional communication, planning and preparation from the moment you book us through every moment of your event.

Turn your special day into a timeless memory with Carolina Royal Strings.
