

Claromy Eliacin's Bio

Born and raised in Long Island, NY, with Haitian roots, Claromy brings over 15 years of experience to her role as a singer. Passionate about sharing stories through music, Claromy cherishes the opportunity to be part of life's most special events. Singing professionally allows her to witness the unfolding of love stories and the beauty of worship settings as she honors these moments with heartfelt performances.

Starting in church, Claromy's musical journey has been deeply rooted in Christian Contemporary and Classic Ballads genres and she also has skills in R&B/Soul and Jazz. Known for traveling around the world to perform for mission and wedding events, Claromy brings a global perspective and a wealth of experience to every event. Additionally, Claromy's ability to sing in different languages adds a unique touch to her performances.

What sets Claromy apart is a commitment to personalizing each performance, her goal is to tell a story through music. By working closely with couples, Claromy ensures that every song resonates with their unique love story, whether it's a classic ballad or a contemporary hit. Her approach allows her performances to reflect the essence of each couple's love, creating an unforgettable experience for both the couple and their guests.