

Carolina Troubadours - A Tribute To George Strait

A love of George Strait and playing for large crowds brought the members of the Carolina Troubadours together. Formed in late 2023, the band is comprised of pro players who love the music of the King of Country Music.

"It doesn't get more country than George Strait," says Troubadours bass player, Chris Bumgarner.

Comprised of vocals, fiddle, steel guitar, bass, drums and guitar, the Troubadours transport you back to the 1980s Texas honky tonk sound George Strait made famous en route to his 61 number-one hits.

From "Fool Hearted Memory" to "The Chair" to "The Fireman," the Troubadours keep people dancing with their energetic, spot on recreations of George Strait classics.

The Carolina Troubadours have a wide appeal for those who love George Strait, country music and music they can dance to.