

Scott Lowder Bio

Scott Lowder is a seasoned solo acoustic performer who brings timeless songs to life with a voice full of soul and a guitar always in tune with the crowd. Covering hits from the '70s through the 2000s, Scott's setlist spans classic rock, pop, and alternative favorites—making him the perfect fit for bars, breweries, restaurants, corporate events, and private parties.

Whether he's playing Fleetwood Mac, Tom Petty, Third Eye Blind, or Counting Crows, Scott delivers familiar songs with a fresh acoustic twist that keeps audiences engaged and singing along. His polished sound, easygoing stage presence, and professional setup make him a reliable and crowd-pleasing addition to any live music lineup.

With hundreds of performances under his belt and a deep catalog of recognizable hits, Scott tailors every show to fit the vibe of the venue and the audience—creating the kind of atmosphere that keeps people coming back for more.