

Sabrina Huang Bio

Violinist

Sabrina Huang is a classically trained violinist who began playing at the age of three. With a deep passion for blending traditional and contemporary styles, she performs with both a string quartet and a party band, bringing versatility and artistry to every stage. Her performances span festivals, weddings, and private events, where she specializes in creating unforgettable musical experiences through expressive covers and timeless favorites. Known for her elegant tone and engaging presence, Sabrina transforms each event into something truly special.