

Chad Meers

Artist Bio

Originally from Kentucky, Chad Meers is a professional guitarist and singer whose approach to live music is rooted in connection, service, and experience.

Chad began playing music at an early age and quickly learned how it can bring people together, creating shared moments and lasting memories. After spending five years of his early adulthood living in Guatemala, where service and community were central to daily life, he returned with a deeper perspective that continues to shape how he shows up for every event.

Now based in Charlotte, Chad has spent over 20 years providing live music for private events, corporate gatherings, weddings, and country clubs, bringing a calm, polished presence and music that supports the moment rather than competes with it.
